Student testimonial: Adrian Tolliday

How did you find the PMP?

The course was fantastic, and doing it in my own time meant that I could really focus on what was delivered in each module. The training cemented the knowledge that I had already gained through my project experience in the past, and caused me to think about what I could have done better?

Although the exam was a gruelling four hours and by far the most challenging one I have done, the course had been so thorough I was adequately prepared and passed.

How did getting certified affect your career?

With renewed vigour and an extra qualification, I approached my contacts again, but this time I included colleagues in other related professions. I got a call from Abu Dhabi and was asked to project manage a new turtle pool development for the Abu Dhabi Environment agency, which led me to secure a job at Dubai Aquarium and Underwater zoo.

The skills I developed through the PMP course meant I could organise my job better, and the framework I was working in was a very functional orientated environment.
